"While clients expect you to unblock pipes and toilets, cut tree roots, fix burst pipes and replace hot water services – bookkeeping and administration often don't get the attention they deserve. While GST, BAS and tax payments often represent some of the largest financial obligations for a self employed plumber, many end up paying too much tax and incur fines for non-compliance."

Linda McGowan CPA

Here at Linda McGowan Pty Ltd we manage a large number of plumbing clients. Having an accountant who understands the mechanics of the plumbing trade can mean the difference between just surviving and potentially thriving. Apart from the usual small business compliance issues of GST, BAS, PAYG and superannuation, we assist clients with managing their cash flow and selecting the right software to prepare quotes, invoices and manage their staff and apprentices. Over the past decade, Linda McGowan and her team of accountants have mentored dozens of plumbers through the various stages of their business life cycle from start up right through to sale. We offer you experience, technical tax knowledge and most importantly, an intimate understanding of your industry.

Thinking Of Starting a Plumbing Business?

As business start-up specialists we have developed a number of practical tools to help you make the right opening moves including our comprehensive start up expense checklist. It is designed to help you identify all your potential business establishment costs including tools, equipment, IT expenses and marketing costs. These figures then automatically feed into a cash flow budget template so we can project your first years profit and loss.
